In order to cater to the growing needs of high skilled IT professionals in Japan, Indo-Sakura in association with two of its business partners has started a new entity called "WorldHR (www.world-hr.com)". At world-Hr, Indo-Sakura offers consulting services on management of global resources, providing experts of emerging technologies, as well as seminars on potentials of India's market. You can get more details from website www.world-hr.com.

■ A new business entity "WorldHR"

Aiming to alleviate the shortage of IT human resources in Japan, the new company will provide integrated support for foreign IT engineers specializing in AI and other fields, as well as education, dispatch, and placement services for both the host and foreign companies.

Indo-Sakura Software Japan K.K. (Head office: Koto-ku, Tokyo; CEO: Atul Paswan) has established a joint venture with Design and Management (Head office: Meguro-ku, Tokyo; CEO: Masaya Ishizaka) and Kusur Corporation (Head office: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo; President: Shin Matsumura). (Head office: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo; CEO: Shin Matsumura), to launch "WorldHR" (https://world-hr.com), an integrated service for training, dispatching, and placement of highly skilled Indian engineers, on Tuesday, April 23. In the midst of the depletion of IT human resources in Japan, WorldHR helps to realize world-class teams and development capabilities by finding highly skilled engineers such as AI engineers, including those from prestigious schools such as IIT in India, and educating them to adapt to Japan, and introducing them to client teams.

Integrated support by a multinational team
1. Indian Economy and Human Resources School in Indian English (instructors are basically Indians) "* for companies that want to know first, as the challenges of utilizing human resources differ from client to client.
2. "Foreigner Acceptance School & Re-education School" for companies that have already accepted foreigners but do not have a functioning team.
3. Consulting for advanced foreign human resources" for companies that think they need a team with foreigners, but want to proceed while confirming their slim needs. And
4. Dispatch and Introduction of Advanced Foreign Talent
We also provide
5. Other services such as local test marketing and tours".

We also provide dispatch and introduction of human resources from China, as well as education and support in Chinese.

Support for ultra-high level human resources
We can also assist in headhunting for AI, blockchain, and other fields that are rare in Japan, with a focus on Indian human resources. We can also approach a variety of other human resources upon client request.

In commemoration of the release of WorldHR, a limited number of companies will receive a free briefing session on the Indian economy and human resources school in Indian English.
(*Japanese service is available for this free briefing only)

In commemoration of the release of WorldHR, a limited number of 20 companies (expected to be about 40 people) will be offered a free trial school. We plan to provide Japanese language support only for this school.
Please note that this offer will end as soon as we reach capacity.
The seminar is scheduled for early June.
